

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Jim Kelly is one of the finest, most dedicated advocates the city of Pierre has ever had; and,

WHEREAS, Jim has deeply immersed himself in all aspects of community living. The father of four boys, Jim has given love and support to his own family along with a strong sense of pride and commitment to the people he works with and for; and,

WHEREAS, Jim has served as chairman of the YMCA Sahara Night, chairman of the Saint Mary's Hospital Fund Drive, and is presently chairman of the Civic Center Committee. He has been on the Board of Directors for the Pierre Area Chamber of Commerce, he is on the board of Pierre Unlimited, and he participated in the Twin City Youth Center Night on the Town; and,

WHEREAS, Jim Kelly cares about Pierre and its young people. That is why he worked with Pierre Unlimited and the City of Pierre on the acquisition of financing a new facility for the South Dakota High School Activities Association; and,

WHEREAS, Despite all these serious responsibilities, Jim, who is also President of American State Bank, tries not to take life too seriously. To some, he is known as "The Great Zambini," and to others, he is that lovable scene stealer in Pierre Players; and,

WHEREAS, Jim Kelly has been like a father to many of his employees in the bank, and he and his wife, Bev, will be sadly missed when they leave to take on the responsibilities of a new job in Spearfish; and,

WHEREAS, After all the nice things that have been said about Jim Kelly, the toughest thing of all is to say "goodbye":

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 11, 1983, as

WE'RE GOING TO MISS YOU, JIM KELLY DAY

In South Dakota.
